2.19 Product Specifications: ROP reserves the right, at its sole option, to require the successful Bidder to provide proof of compliance with these specifications by submitting a representative sample of their offering for examination and testing.

For the purpose of this RFP, Specifications are defined as:

- Where “acceptable brands,” “only,” or “no substitutes” stipulations are set forth, product must be provided as specified.
- Where a brand is “referenced” - a known product is listed and any offerings must be equal to or better than the referenced brand. ROP will be the sole judge in determining “equal” products.
- If no acceptable brand or referenced brand is noted, product(s) of the highest quality are to be bid and are subject to ROP testing and approval.
- “Private Labels” are acceptable unless otherwise noted, however, when offering a private label, please also note manufacturer’s product being represented. A certification letter may be required.

Private labeled products that are sold by the Prime Vendor shall be included on any rebate tracking requests if the manufacturer for which the rebate is requested produces that private label

"Fixed Fee" is defined as the difference between cost, as defined above, and the selling price to ROP. Fixed fees shall remain firm for the duration of the agreement regardless of supplier invoice price.

"Invoice Cost" is defined as the Prime Vendor Cost including inbound freight cost, less any available rebates or allowances passed on to ROP, plus the Fixed-Fee. The invoice cost shall be calculated:

Cost (including inbound freight)
- rebates and other "off" invoice allowances
+ the Fixed Mark-Up fee
= Invoice Cost

2.22 Invoices: An itemized invoice in duplicate, to include product name, unit cost, extension, piece count and total charges, must accompany all orders. SECTION 4

BACKGROUND, OVERVIEW, AND GOALS

4.1 Background of Rite of Passage. For over 40 years, ROP has been operating residential programs and schools with the mission of improving the lives of youth. ROP is a nationally recognized organization that delivers approximately 75 juvenile justice, child welfare and educational programs to 5,000 at-risk and vulnerable children and families each day. These programs are located in 17 states. From time to time, ROP may add additional programs, or close programs.

Currently, ROP is seeking a Prime Vendor to provide and deliver commercial food products to multiple locations, as listed in Exhibit A, which may change from time to time. Within these locations, ROP operates residential treatment programs for youth 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. While the population fluctuates from time to time, there are currently 1,700 students residing in these programs, and are served breakfast, lunch, dinner and snack daily. Based on the most current pricing and usage, facilities listed in Exhibit A have spent a combined total of over $10 million dollars annually for basic food commodities, not including those items excluded from the proposed Prime Vendor contract mentioned in this section.

4.2 Overview and Goals: ROP intends to purchase an estimated 75% of its commercial food products (Exhibits C), with the exception of food products listed as Exclusions for Large Facilities.

The Goals of this RFP are to:

- Establish minimum quality standards for food items used by ROP
- Decrease cost of food
- Minimize the number of product substitutions
- Reduction of administrative overhead in relation to food purchasing
- Increase efficiency in ordering, invoicing, and payment process
- Minimize the number of orders, and maximize the loads

Small Facilities, defined by ROP as a small census and food spend, will be required to utilize the Prime Food Vendor for the following purchases: Dry, canned, frozen, kitchen supplies, chemicals, meat, produce and dairy.

Small Facilities list: See Exhibit A

Large Facilities, defined by ROP as a moderate or high census and food spend, will be required to utilize the Prime Food Vendor for the following purchases: dry, canned, frozen, kitchen supplies, and chemicals.

Meat, produce and dairy shall be excluded from the Prime Food Vendor Agreement for Large Facilities. Large Facilities reserve the right to procure meat, produce, and/or dairy from any Vendor through a Small or Micro Bid Process, separate from this Agreement, following all State, Local, and National School Lunch and Breakfast Program procurement guidelines.

Large Facility Exclusions:

- Dairy
- Meats
- Produce

Large Facilities list: See Exhibit A.

Rite of Passage shall retain the right to negotiate deals and deviations directly with brokers and manufacturers. The Contractor will be expected incorporate these into this agreement by managing the procurement and distribution of these products as part of the contract.

Please explain in detail how the winning bidder will manage and incorporate these deals into this agreement.

4.3 No Limitation to Product: It is understood that ROP facilities are not limited to ordering only those items contained in Exhibit C.

SECTION 5

REQUIREMENTS/STATEMENT OF WORK

Bidder shall describe in detail how they will meet each requirement within the Business Proposal as described in Section 5. Respond to each requirement in the order and sequence presented. Your response must identify the letter associated with each requirement (1 through 17).

1. Account Representatives and Communication

The Vendor will assign an account representative for each ROP facility that is familiar with the account, and will able to assist with ordering, product information, delivery and invoice issues. It is understood that registration and travel shall be at the expense of the Vendor.

Requirement: Considering the objectives stated above, Bidder shall describe the organizational structure, and how the account representatives will assist with ordering, product information, delivery and invoice issues. Describe the process for providing invitations and registration for key ROP food service staff.

2. Direct Order Entry

The Prime Vendor must be able to provide a full service secure (https) direct order entry system/website that can be accessed from personal computers using any current operating system (Microsoft, IOS) at no charge to ROP.

- Have a search by item code
- Have a search by alpha lookup for item name and/or brand name
- Have capability of transmitting orders 24 hours a day

Any necessary software must be able to function on the full range of hardware presently in use and be able to be upgraded to anticipate future hardware enhancements (i.e., processing speed). Any initial software upgrades that would need to be made to ROP's computers to access the Prime Vendor's system would be at the expense of the Prime Vendor. As upgrades to the Prime Vendor's existing direct order entry system happen during the contract period, the upgraded software must be made available to all ROP facilities at no additional charge.

ROP desires full technical support, which should include the following:

- Full initial training in the use of the online order guide and system.

- Full emergency support to service each/every ROP facility in the event of a ROP or Prime Vendor computer failure
- On-going and refresher training provided for new and current ROP staff
- An inside technical support person specifically assigned to each ROP facility and corporate account to provide assistance, for trouble shooting and to answer questions

Additional consideration will be given for other enhancements in the direct order entry that are considered desirable by ROP.

Requirement: Considering the objectives stated above, describe each of the requirements including capabilities of online ordering system, process for upgrading software, technical support and training provided to ROP, and any system enhancements provided.

3. Manual Order System

A manual call, computer, or mobile app(s) shall be established for operations emergencies, or when there is no direct order access system available. Vendor must provide a Customer Service number for call in orders, or fax number. A local and 1-800 number is required.

Requirement: Describe the policy and protocol for a manual call-in or fax system.

4. Order Schedule

Each ROP facility must be able to input orders and make changes as late as 4:00 p.m. the day before the orders are to be delivered. Please define cut-off times for each location.

Requirement: Describe the policy and protocol ensuring Bidder can fulfill late orders for ROP.

5. Delivery

Delivery schedules are to be considered flexible until such time as they are mutually agreed upon between each ROP facility and the Prime Vendor. Normal deliveries for ROP are expected to take place Monday through Friday between 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m, or a mutually agreed upon schedule. ROP expects consistency in drivers delivering to our facilities.

If an item cannot be delivered as ordered, the Prime Vendor must notify the affected ROP facility immediately, either by phone or when placing web orders, so decisions may be made concerning menu offerings and potential substitutions. Any returns or refused items are to be credited on the invoice at time of delivery.

All product discovered to be other than the specified product or found to be in a condition unsuitable for use by ROP (i.e. milk with expiration or use-by dates too close to the delivery date), shall be refused at time of delivery and the invoice must be adjusted at time of delivery. The Prime Vendor shall make good any such discrepancy by immediate credit, replacement or other means satisfactory and acceptable to ROP. Concealed variations or latent defects, substitutions or damages will be subject to return for credit or replacement on demand of the affected ROP facility.

Requirement: Given the requirements above, Bidder shall describe their capacity to fulfill delivery requirements including but not limited to delivery times, consistency, minimizing late deliveries and process for rejected products.

6. Delivery Procedure

The Prime Vendor shall deliver all products individually labeled and invoiced by account to each location. The products shall be maintained at their proper temperature throughout their staging, loading, transport and delivery. Deliveries shall be palletized and wrapped on standard sized pallets and never mix chemical and food products on the same pallet. In addition, pallets shall be organized with the heaviest products at the bottom so as to not damage light or fragile products. At each delivery, the Prime Vendor must pick up all unused pallets from the operation. Please keep in mind that most of our facilities will require two-wheel delivery.

All refrigerated and frozen goods will be clearly dated. These products will be transported in temperature-controlled environments that are consistent with their recommended storage temperatures, as defined by the manufacturer standards. Temperature verification will be taken upon receipt. Due to safety and security concerns, products packaged in glass containers need prior approval before delivery.

All of the Prime Vendor's facilities and delivery vehicles must conform to local, state, federal rules and regulations regarding sanitation and transportation and are subject to inspection ROP or other officials at the discretion of ROP. The trucks must be equipped to maintain the appropriate temperatures and product segregation as necessary.

The Vendor's delivery personnel may be required to sign in at the operation's office or entrance to facility before unloading. They shall deliver and off load all products to an area specified by the operation on the inside of the operation's building. The Vendor shall provide any equipment needed to complete this process. Vehicles shall be checked thoroughly before exiting a facility and may be inspected upon exit by ROP staff. Vehicles shall never be left unlocked, running or with the keys in the ignition.

The Vendor's employees shall conduct business with ROP personnel in a competent, courteous and professional manner. ROP will notify the Vendor of any chronic problems and may request that the offending personnel be removed from the account.

It is preferred that there are limited end-of-the-month deliveries scheduled (e.g., limited deliveries on the last day of the month), so that the food product will be delivered, invoiced and paid within one monthly accounting cycle.

Requirement: In consideration of the requirements above, Bidder shall describe how they will fulfill delivery procedures including ensuring proper labeling, dates, separation of product, safe temperatures, limiting end-of-the-month deliveries, and the provision of all other requirements.

7. Substitutions or Shortages

ROP Food Service Managers must approve substitutions prior to delivery. The Food Service Managers shall be notified prior to delivery of any shortages that will occur; either by phone or at the time the order is placed. The decisions on substitutions will be made by ROP Food Service Managers based on cost, intended use, and customer acceptance, including changes in brand, pack size, case count and weight. If the supplier substitutes an item without prior approval, ROP will only pay the Supplier's Cost.

Substitute products must be of equal or better quality as determined by ROP. If the substituted item cost is less, then the lower cost shall prevail. If a substitution is made that costs more than the originally ordered product, the substituted product shall be sold to ROP at the same price per serving as the originally ordered product. Additional requirements:

- Product samples may be requested as part of the substitution approval process at the expense of the Prime Vendor.
- If the product is not suitable and ROP obtains the product from another source, any additional cost shall be charged to the Prime Vendor.
- If an alternate vendor is arranged by the Prime Vendor for substitutions or shortages, ROP will be invoiced at the cost or the alternate selling price, whichever is lower.
- If the Vendor is no longer able to purchase the product for any reason, including discontinuance by manufacturer, then the Prime Vendor shall provide a substitute that has been approved by ROP intended at the same price or lower than the original item.
- If Core Items are not delivered completely, the Vendor must correct the situation by next business day.
- If ROP is required to purchase a product from another source due to shortages that occur, all substitutions shall be noted on the invoice in addition to the originally ordered product.

- The Prime Vendor shall stock specified and pre-approved products. Change of stock items will be reviewed with ROP prior to changes.

Fill rates are not to fall below a monthly average of 98%. The Prime Vendor will provide monthly fill rate reporting and meet ROP staff regarding ways to mitigate fill rates that fall below 98%. Fill rates may include "accepted" product substitutions.

Most ROP operations that require specific or 'branded' items prevent acceptance of substitutions. ROP desires an "in-stock guarantee" on such items whereby ROP would supply a list of the specific products and the Prime Vendor would guarantee that ROP will have specified products considered to be critical. Exhibit C is an example of the specific products that ROP desires as "in-stock guarantee" items. This list is not an exhaustive list, only a sampling of the specified products, and is subject to change.

Requirement: In consideration of the requirements above, Bidder shall describe how its organization shall meet all of the requirements related to substitutions and shortages.

8. Quality Assurance

ROP requires all food products purchased to be safe and free of defects. All products bid must conform to the specifications as designated in Section 2 and listed below:

- If a manufacturer's name or brand is specified, it is intended to be for conveyance of quality, type or for identification; therefore, a product bid as "Equal" must be comparable (equal or superior) to the item specified as determined by ROP.
- Where "only" stipulations are set forth, bids must be quoted as specified.
- If no acceptable brand or referenced brand is noted, product(s) of the highest quality are to be bid and are subject to ROP testing and approval.
- "Private Labels" are acceptable unless otherwise noted. However, if bidding a private label, please also note manufacturer's product and product # being represented. A certification letter may be required.

All food and beverage products provided must have a shelf life that comply with Industry Standards for product "use by" dates. When available, products should clearly show the use-by date, date of production, date of processing, sell by date, best if used date, or similar markings. ROP will not accept repackaged or unmarked items. All products shall be clearly labeled:

- Manufacturer and product origin
- Net weight
- Ingredients
- Federal, State, and local labeling requirements

To further ensure the safety of food, the Vendor shall have an approved Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point (HACCP) Food Safety Program for the acquisition, handling and delivery of food items.

Requirement: In consideration of the requirements above, Bidder shall describe how products shall meet quality assurance and specification requirements. Proposals shall describe organizational policies and procedures to ensure product integrity including a description of the organization's HACCP Plan. Indicate any independent inspections and any certifications received.

9. Product Recall

Prime Vendor awarded the contract under this solicitation shall be required to notify ROP of any manufacturer's recalls regarding items ordered under said contracts. The Prime Vendor shall contact ROP (Director of Food Service) within the same day of notification by the manufacturer. Failure to comply with this requirement may be cause for termination. Prime Vendor will arrange to pick-up recalled product, and issue credits as required.

Requirement: Bidder shall describe the product recall process and submit a copy of their recall process with their proposal. We prefer a tiered process: First call, Food Service Manager. Second call, Facility Director. Third call, Food Service Director.

10. Expanded Product and Nutrition Information

Upon request, the Prime Vendor must provide to ROP expanded product information to include but not be limited to: manufacturer name/contact number, manufacturer product code number, general description of the product, portion or serving size, number of portions per case, whether delivered frozen, refrigerated or shelf stable, storage temperature, shelf life of the product, preparation and cooking information and serving suggestions.

Additional information requested may include: the list of ingredients on the product label; portion size in grams; calories in Kcal per portion; the fat, protein, and carbohydrate content in grams per portion; if a product is Kosher, vegetarian (vegan, lacto-, ovo-, or lacto-ovo-vegetarian); known allergens present and other nutritional information in accordance with USDA nutrition facts label. It is preferred that ROP that the expanded product and nutrition information available through the direct order entry system for ease of access.

Requirement: Describe the expanded product information available to ROP, the process for acquiring this information, and if it is available on the direct order entry system.

11. Special Order Products

The Prime Vendor must note any items that ROP orders that are non-stock or are "special order" and upon request, provide the lead-time necessary for delivery. Upon notification of award, the Vendor will initiate purchasing of non-stock items to eliminate delivery delays to ROP.

There shall be no extra charges for the buying and storing of special order items. The fee per case for any special products will be the same as the agreed upon fee per case of other similar products.

Requirement: Bidder shall describe their policies and system for ordering and delivering "non-stock" or "special-order" items.

12. Group Purchasing Organization

The Prime Vendor must utilize Group Purchasing Organization (GPO) pricing for this solicitation. If items can be purchased at a lessor cost due to rebates and incentives outside the GPO those items must be exempted from the GPO agreement, thus ensuring a cost saving to ROP.

Requirement: Submit details of the GPO, including name, contact information, and expiration of the vendor/GPO agreement.

13. Audits/Price Verification Reviews

To ensure pricing accuracy, a price verification review shall be performed as part of the evaluation process to determine the accuracy of the pricing submitted. As part of this process the Director of Food Services shall contact each Bidder during the valuation period, which is the week of December 15-18. The pricing audit shall include a spot check of a minimum of ten of the top forty (40) items.

In addition, the Prime Vendor shall exercise maximum control over all transactions and recommend conditions and systems needed to maintain this control. In case of any doubt or difference as to the amount due ROP or the Prime Vendor, the decision of ROP auditors shall be final and binding upon both parties.

ROP reserves the right to conduct a price verification review and/or contract compliance audit of the Prime Vendor at least twice yearly and more often if deemed necessary. The Prime Vendor shall be willing to provide information on cost without reservation. ROP's purpose in conducting routine price verification reviews is to confirm that amounts invoiced are in accordance with the terms of the agreement. Under normal circumstances ROP will give a lead-time of approximately one month for a routine price verification review, which will be conducted on at least 40 items for a period not exceeding six (6) months prior to the audit date.

The documentation needed would include, but not be limited to, the following: the original copy of invoices for Prime Vendor purchases from their suppliers; freight bills or support documentation where freight is charged separately; and manufacturer documentation of any applicable off-invoice allowances. If during a price verification review sufficient irregularities are detected to cause concern on the part of ROP, additional information may be requested including any history during the life of the contract.

If at any other time ROP identifies any irregularities in the administration of the contract, or the Prime Vendor has acted in such a way as to give just cause to suspect a violation of the agreement, then a price verification review and/or audit may be conducted with a minimum notice in order to investigate and correct an error. In this case, the audit may be conducted for any period within the contract, with the expectation that financial errors shall be paid back to ROP and that the Prime Vendor shall submit a corrective action plan to ensure this does not happen in the future.

Requirement: In consideration of above, Bidder shall describe their willingness and their process that allows ROP to conduct price verification reviews.

14. Public Health Security and Bioterrorism Preparedness and Response Act of 2002

The Bioterrorism Act requires domestic and foreign facilities that manufacture, process, pack, or hold food for human or animal consumption in the United States to register with the FDA.

Requirement: Provide the registration number compliant with this requirement.

15. Provision of Beverages

ROP currently offers coffee, tea and assorted other beverages to employees that includes dispensing equipment and service.

Requirement: Include in your response the type of beverage programs available.

16. Disaster Planning and Pandemic Outbreaks

ROP has responsibility for the direct care of clients and residents residing in 24/7 direct care facilities and must be considered as a "High Priority" for deliveries should any kind of disaster be declared in this area. A disaster plan must address and define its strategy for continuing deliveries in the event of disasters such as natural disaster, pandemic, inclement weather, work stoppage, or other happenings. This plan would take precedence over any general contractual obligations and further ensure the continuation of essential goods and services to ROP.

At times when refrigeration repairs cannot be completed same day, and storage of refrigerated or frozen product is compromised, then the Prime Vendor will assist the operation by providing a refrigerated unit (truck or trailer) temporarily until refrigeration repairs are complete.

Requirement: Bidder shall describe compliance with the requirements above. Provide a written endorsement if such plan includes and obligates other companies or warehouse locations for maintaining a supply of food and food service related supplies to ROP facilities. Describe in your proposal Prime Vendor's ability to accommodate storage of refrigerated or frozen product.

17. Plan for Transition

As applicable, please describe how the successful bidder shall implement food service effective February 1, 2026 should a new vendor be selected. Please describe the resources and timeline required to ensure successful phase-in of food service delivery, to include establishing communication between accounts receivable and accounts payable departments.

Requirement: Bidder shall provide a timeline and resources to ensure a smooth transition between the January 31 and Feb. 1 start date.

SECTION 6

- Follow the sequence, outline and response format as listed below which includes the following sections 1) Transmittal Letter; 2) Business Proposal, with two parts; 3) Cost Proposal and 4) Exhibits.
- All four sections (1-4) shall be one PDF document and submitted via email.

  Email to Jamie.carlton@rop.com; use subject line "ROP Prime Vendor Proposal."

SECTION 1) Transmittal Letter: The Transmittal Letter shall be on your official business letterhead, signed by an individual authorized to commit your organization to the proposed work. The Transmittal Letter shall include the following:

1. Positively states your willingness to comply with all work requirements and other terms and conditions as specified in this RFP. Any exceptions to these shall be noted in the Transmittal Letter.
2. Identifies all material and attachments that comprise your proposal.
3. States that the Bidder's Proposal shall remain valid for a minimum of one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of the award.
4. Affirms the prices in this proposal have been arrived at independently, without consultation, communication, or agreement, for the purpose of restricting competition, as to any matter relating to such prices with any other bidder or with any competitor.

SECTION 2) Business Proposal: The Business Proposal shall consist of two parts:

Part 1: Experience: The Bidder's proposal shall include evidence that it has the knowledge, skills, abilities, and experience in the areas identified in this RFP.

Briefly describe your firm's experience and capabilities that will enable it to fulfill the requirements of this RFP. List the States in which the company operates and describe the company's ability to serve all ROP facilities. Describe how the company purchases locally, including the approximate quantity (i.e. percentage) of local purchases. Explain the company's sustainability plan. This section is not to exceed three (3) pages.

Part 2: Technical Proposal: Reference each requirement set forth in Section 4, Requirements/Statement of Work, followed by a response describing how the requirement will be met. Identify the associated letter of each requirement in your response (1 through 17).

SECTION 3) Cost Proposal: The Prime Vendor receiving an award resulting from this RFP will be responsible for providing the same pricing structure per product category, to all food service operations within the ROP system, existing or new through the contract period. This is an opportunity for the Prime Vendor to increase volume and therefore is not expected to incur higher mark up and fees.

The Cost Proposal shall consist of the following five (5) requirements:

1. Complete Exhibit C by entering current pricing and current availability for the products listed. Exhibit C contains two columns "Price Per Case" and "Availability." The Bidder shall complete both columns and utilizing the following methods and shall return the completed Exhibit C as part of Bidder's proposal:

   Price Per Case is defined as the Prime Vendor Cost, less any available rebates or allowances passed on to ROP, plus the Fixed-Fee. Availability shall be based on the following key:

   S Stocked

   L Needs more than a 2-day lead time to acquire

   N Not stocked

   E Equivalent offered

2. Describe in detail how pricing is calculated. Refer to Section 2.21 "Cost plus Fixed Fee" for ROP requirements. Specify rebates ROP would be eligible to receive.

3. Specific any order minimums, special charges, delivery restrictions or special conditions.

4. As described in Section 2.22, ROP's standard payment terms are Net 45. ROP desires a discount for payment in less than Net 45. Describe and detail invoicing procedures, including the amount of discount ROP can receive for terms less than 45 days.

5. It is ROP's objective to keep food costs as low as possible. Address in detail how the bidder will be able to minimize the impact of rising food costs.

6. ROP requests account representatives visit each facility specified in Exhibit A, weekly. Specify if there will be any additional cost for weekly on-site visitation, what that cost is, and how the cost is calculated. The maximum number of points (5) will be awarded to Bidders who provide this customer service at no additional cost.

SECTION 4) Exhibits, Appendices and Additional Information. Since the preceding sections are to contain information that is specifically requested, the Bidder may include any additional information considered essential to the proposal in this section. The Bidder should not include general information publications, such as marketing, directories or client lists.

EVALUATION AND AWARD

An Evaluation Committee will be established prior to opening the proposals. The sole objective of the Evaluation Committee is to conduct reviews of the submitted proposals along with other documentation that may be requested, to hold frank and detailed discussions among themselves, and to recommend the proposal for award that is responsive and most advantageous to ROP.

Bidders should not assume that they would have an opportunity for oral presentations or revisions of proposals. Therefore, Bidders should submit their most favorable proposal as their initial proposal.

The Evaluation Committee will conduct a comprehensive, fair, and impartial evaluation of the proposals received in this solicitation effort. A Proposal Evaluation will evaluate Proposals that meet the minimum general requirements. Evaluation criteria for the proposals will be used for the purpose of ranking the proposals in a relative position based on how fully each proposal meets the requirements of this RFP. Clarifying questions, oral presentations, and BAFOs, may be permitted during the evaluation process. If so, Bidders will be given a reasonable timeframe in which to formulate and submit written responses to the questions and to provide any related revisions to their initial proposal. Such revisions will be at the option of the Bidder but will be limited to the guidelines included within ROP's requested clarifications. No additional written materials will be permitted. Adjustments to pricing will also be allowed, but only to the extent, such revisions are reflected in, and are consistent with, the proposal revisions.

The award decision ultimately is a business judgment that will reflect an integrated assessment of the relative merits of the proposals using the factors set forth in the RFP. ROP intends to award the contract to the Bidder whose proposal, conforming to the RFP, will be most advantageous to ROP, price and other factors considered. Please see Exhibit D for the RFP scoring rubric.
